April 1, 2015 Thought for the Week

" On entering the tomb they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a white robe, and they were utterly amazed. He said to them, "Do not be amazed! You seek Jesus of Nazareth, the crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Behold the place where they laid him. But go and tell his disciples and Peter, 'He is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him, as he told you.'" Mark16: 5-7

Mission Statement

As educators of Immaculate Conception Catholic School, we believe that the purpose of a Catholic education is to provide a foundation in the Scriptures, Traditions and ongoing teachings of the Catholic Church. We develop faith based, spiritual, life-long learners who exemplify the pursuit of excellence in all opportunities found in our global community.

Revolution Food Service Program Chair Person Needed

We are in need of a person to oversee the daily breakfast/lunch program. This is a paid position that requires approximately 3 hours a day, Monday through Friday. If you are interested please contact Mr. McMains.

Summer School 2015

We are considering offering a summer school program this year. If you are interested in having your child attend this program please return the interest form that was sent home in last week's newsletter.

Our next monthly awards assembly will be held tomorrow morning, April 2nd at 8 am.

Registration for the 2015-2016 School Year

We are in the process of preparing for registration for the 2015-2016 school year. In order to assist in this process we need to know how many students are planning to return for the next school year. Please complete the Intent to Return Form that was sent home in the March 4th newsletter. Please contact the office if you need a form. The registration process will begin after Easter vacation.

Catholic Education Foundation

Applications for tuition assistance from the Catholic Education Foundation (CEF) are now available. All families who had negotiated tuition this year are required to complete a CEF application for next year. Parents may download an application from the school website under the Admissions tab, financial aid, drop-down. Paper applications are also available in the school office. Applications are due by April 24th. If you know of a prospective family who needs tuition assistance, please encourage them to apply.

Remember all families who cannot pay full tuition are required to complete a CEF application.
